

OPEN INVITATION

Ensley Walkable Community Workshop
Tuesday November 7, 2006 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.
JCCEO Head Start St. Joseph's Center
1105 30th Street
Birmingham, AL 35218

Refer to location maps on back side of this flyer.

The National Center for Bicycling and Walking will facilitate a community discussion on walkable community development at the JCCEO Head Start St. Joseph's Center on Tuesday November 7th from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. The session is being co-sponsored by the Regional Planning Commission of Greater Birmingham, the Birmingham Metropolitan Planning Organization, and the Jefferson County Committee for Economic Opportunity.

The goal of this workshop is to bring together citizens, community leaders, law enforcement, planners, engineers, architects and public health interests to discuss:

1. benefits and principles of walkable communities
2. barriers to walking in Ensley
3. measures that could be implemented to make Ensley more walkable

Come learn how to build a more walkable community and share your ideas about how to improve the walking environment in Ensley. Refreshments will be provided for workshop participants. Anyone interested in attending should contact Tom Maxwell of the Regional Planning Commission of Greater Birmingham at 205-264-8445 or e-mail tmaxwell@rpcgb.org. Please RSVP by Wednesday November 1st.

Ensley Walkable Community Workshop Location Maps

